and you thought it would never happen!

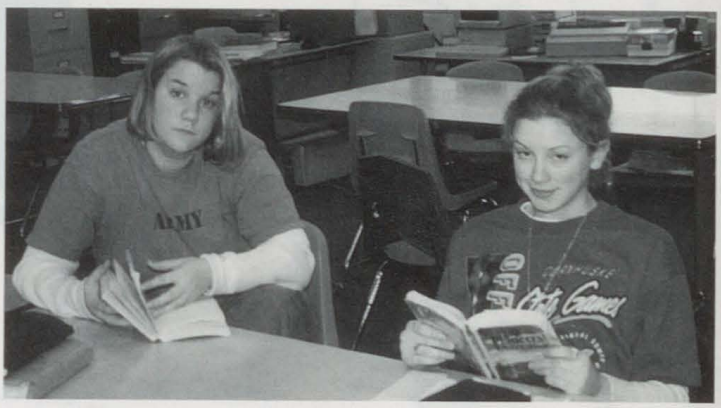
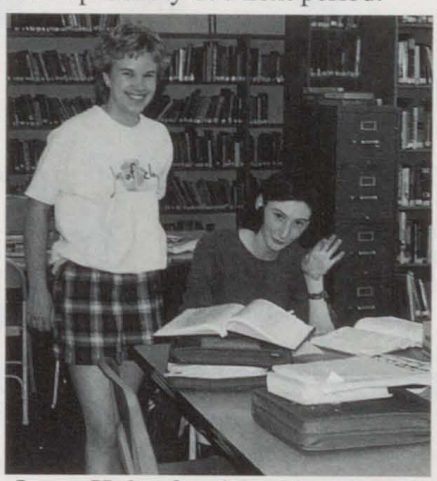
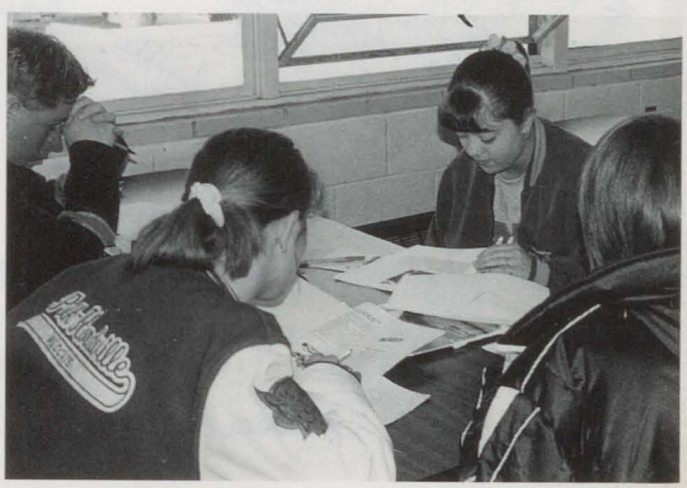
Jenny Erickson really concentrating on a subject that is probably due next period.



Marita Riebschlager and Julia Garey in study hall. "Are you girls reading your English assignment or just acting like it?"



Jenny Holtorf and Jasmine Kernes working together on something.

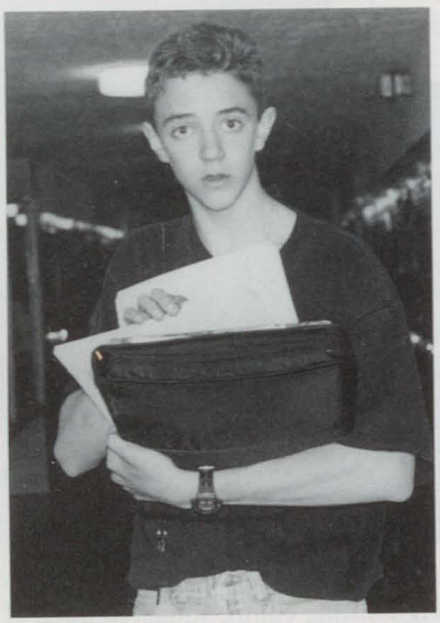


Oscar Lagerberg, Tiffany Majerus, Cortney Ortegren and Chelsea Fowler work together on some assignment.

"We never knew Science could be so much fun." Here the freshmen physical science class is seeing what flight time they get with their paper airplanes. Jennifer Werner lets hers go as Marc Stokes, Crystal Lindburg, Lisa Garrett and Tracy Bankson inspect their airplanes before they set them lose for science class.

Dawn Koehler works on an assignment for one of her classes.

Johanna Saeger is doing her English.



Right: Clay Stevens getting caught in the hall making sure he has all the papers needed for his next class.

The science department always give trees out for Arbor Day. Here Nick Larson, Mindi Fowler, Jon Knievel and Chad Garrett get the task of bagging them for the students.

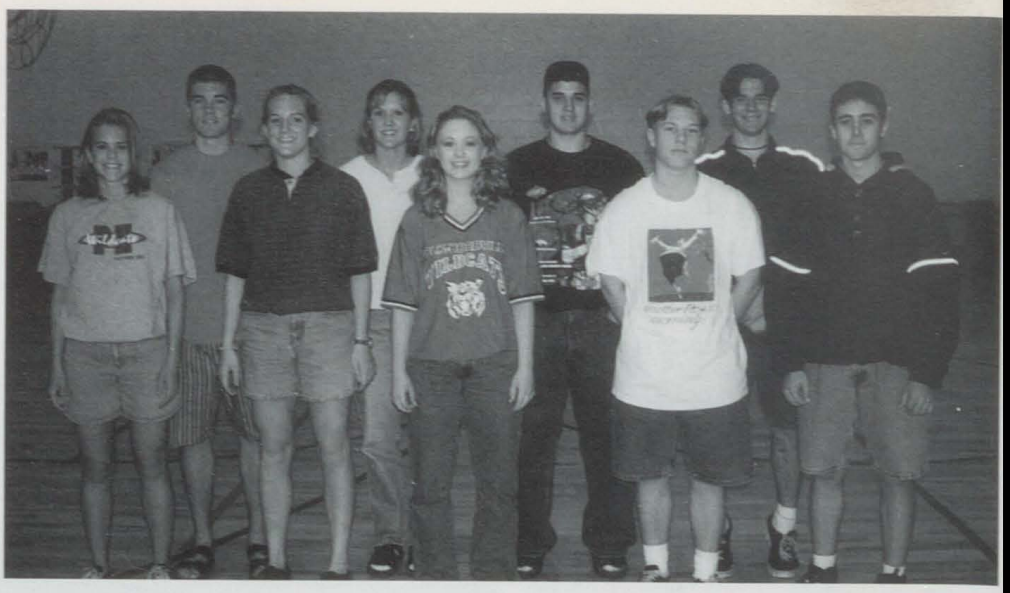
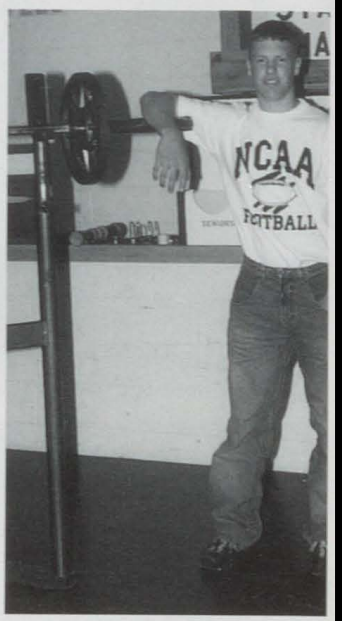
"Ladies, it's only PE class, the boys won't notice if your hair is just so!"

Business Competition Team

Niki Glasser, Anthony Hudson, Caryn Hudson, Julie Hanquist, Jessica Stevens, Nick Larson, Owen Saeger, Jeremy Garrett, Jon Knievel. This contest was held at UNK in February. Niki placed 4th in Business Communications, Caryn received 5th in Spelling, Nick was 3rd in Computer Literacy, Owen placed 3rd in General Business and 6th in Accounting I, and Jessica was 3rd in Business Law. All these students competed against schools from all classes from across Nebraska. Their performance was excellent at this contest.





Mandy Price, left, Shawn Hanquist, middle, and Chad Hoffman, right, among others took part in a weight lifting competition. All three of these students placed 1st or 2nd in their competition. The only results that could be gotten at press time of this book was for Chad Hoffman who placed 2nd in both Bench and Clean Power Lifting. Apologies are extended to Mandy and Shawn for not getting your results in print.

Great Happening Occur at Polk-Hordville

As you will see from the pages in this annual, great things happens at our school. The students at Polk-Hordville should all be congratulated for the activities they take part in and the performances they have in the classroom. Our honor roll always has a high percentage of our students on them and the sports records and the activity performances are always rated toward the top.

Great students and teachers are at Polk-Hordville. There are very few problems that have to be dealt with during the school year. We are especially lucky to have students, teachers, and parents who care about their school. There is no need to worry about someone coming up to the school and taking a shot at the students or teachers, which wasn't the case this year across our nation. The largest problems we seem to have to deal with is tardiness or absence from school.

Polk-Hordville is a school that cares about the people within our walls. Everyone who attends this school gets the help needed to succeed if they work towards that goal for themselves.

Crossroads Conference Sweepstakes Trophy finds way back to Polk-Hordville

Look at all this hardware. This is the collection of trophies the teams at Polk-Hordville won throughout the 1997-1998 school year. "Very impressive, don't you think?"

Polk-Hordville students have a right to be proud. For the 4th year the CRC sweepstakes trophy was awarded to them at the conclusion of the crossroads conference track meet. This is the last event to count in the point total for this award to be given. The award is given annually to the crossroads member school in recognition of demonstrated excellence in their school's total activity program. A point system determines which school will display the sweepstakes plaque for the next year. Each school acquires points from their performances in conference activities throughout the current school year. Results of the 1997-1998 school year's activities that count in the award was:

Volleyball	1st Place
Play Production	1st Place
Boys Basketball	2nd Place
Girls Basketball	2nd Place
Honor Band	9 students
Honor Choir	6 students
Speech	6th Place
Boys Track	6th Place
Girls Track	1st Place

Polk-Hordville also won this award for 1991-1992, 1992-1993 and 1995-1996. The award was started by the crossroads conference for the 1986-1987 school year.

Staff members put in lots of hours performing the tasks needed to make the school run smoothly. Many nights the teachers take work home for final preparations needed. Many of the teachers and administrators do double duty sponsoring groups and activities that have extra hours of practice and meetings during the evening hours. A teacher needs to be dedicated to their job to serve the needs of their students and be well prepared for their classes each day.

Welcome to the mug-shot page. We decided to try something new this year. So we came up with this concept. No one ever likes their school pictures, so we decided to put them on a page all their own. You only have to look at yourself if you want to. Each class has a separate page elsewhere in this annual. So, now you can enjoy the memories from your class page and not have to stare at your "lovely" school picture. Hope you like the idea.

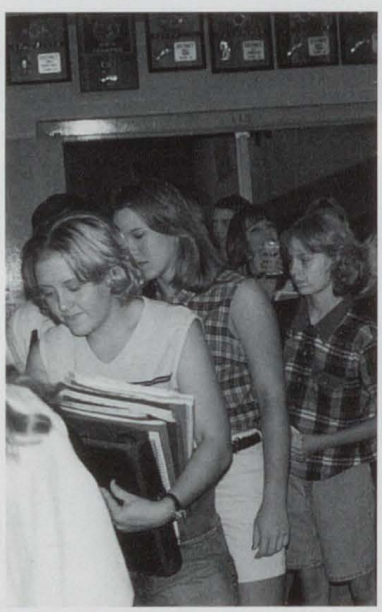
The first day of school always starts with an assembly in the gym, listening to the principal explain the rules.

One thing the students would like to change is the walking back and forth between buildings. This day the weather was nice, but it can get quite cold on some days.



The first day can be emotional. For some this will be the last time they have to stand in line to get their schedule. For others it's only beginning.

Class of 2001

Class of 2001

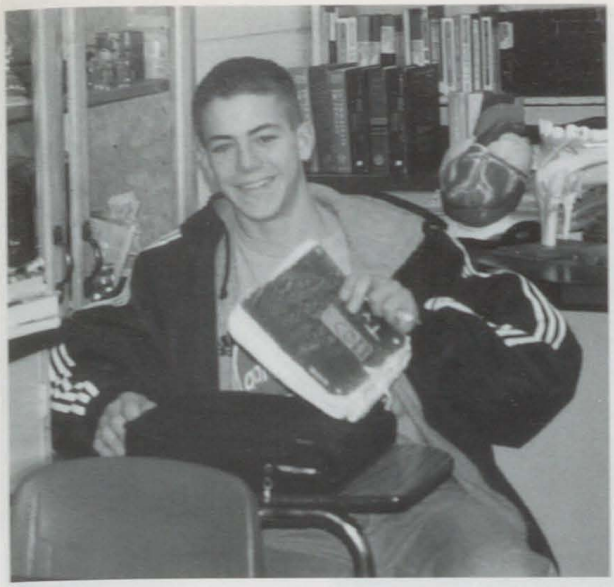
Justin Knievel in his normal state of mind

Jessie telling Crystal to get it straight!

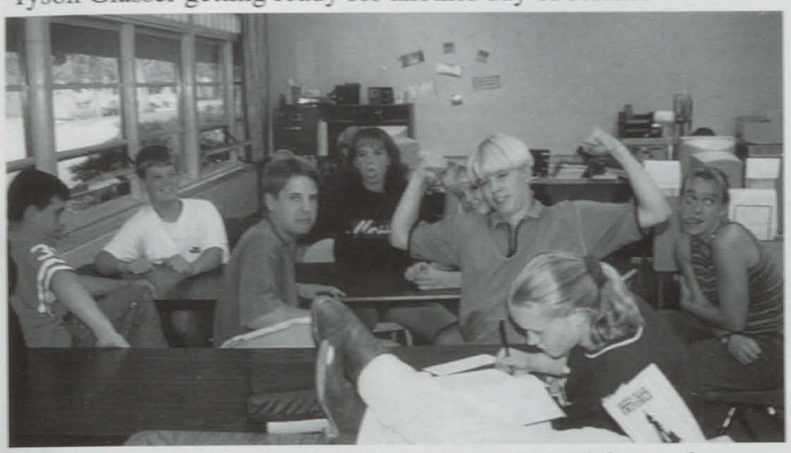
Jen Werner wondering what should I do next?

Freshmen girls, Lisa Garrett, Tracy Bankson, and Erin Garrett showing their style with Mark Collett a Dustin Bodfield looking on



Tyson Glasser getting ready for another day of science

"Mark Collett stop being so nervous, it's only Math class next!"



Another normal day for the freshmen, some studying and some wondering what to do with their time.

Some freshmen girls starting their first day at the high school.

The freshman year is always a year of adjustments. The students come to the high school returning to the bottom of the totem pole, after being on top at the middle school the year before. They must feel their way around among the other students.

The year brings about harder classes and many more activities to get involved in. They must find their place in the whole scheme of things. Election of class officers was held and brought about the following results: President - Clay Stevens, Vice President - Lisa Garrett, St. Council Rep. - Mark Collett, Secretary - Jen Werner, and Treasurer - Mandy Price.

"Jon, we snuck one in on you!"

"Don't blame me I just got here" says Chelsea.

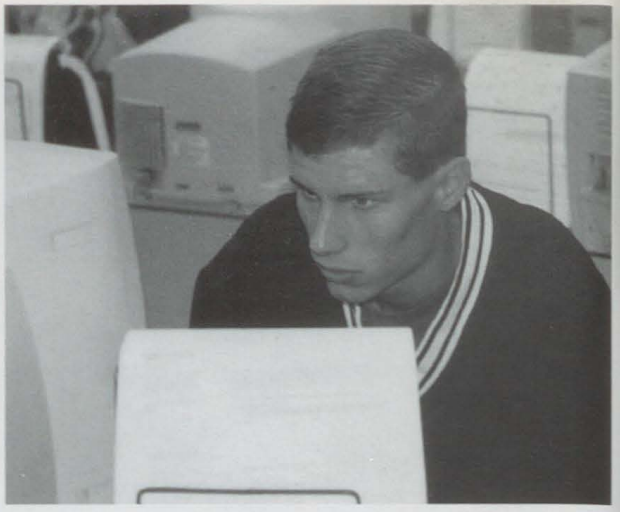
Memories

Oft I remember those whom I have known
In other days, to whom my heart was led
As by a magnet , and who are not dead
But absent, and their memories overgrown
With other thoughts and troubles of my own,
As graves with grasses are, and at their head
The stone with moss and lickens so o'er-spread
Nothing is legible but the name alone.
And is it so with them? After long years,
Do they remember me in the same way,
And is the memory pleasant as to me?
I fear to ask; yet wherefore are my fears,
Pleasures, like flowers, may wither and decay,
And yet the root perennial may be.

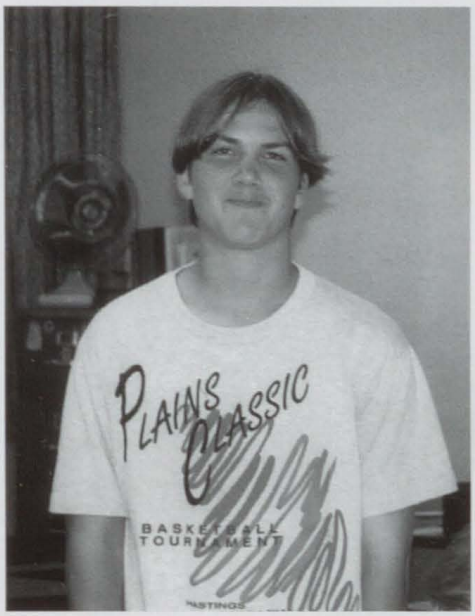
Not a lot happens during Sophomore year in the high school. The class organizes one fund raiser to start the saving process for prom expenses. They sold pizza at one of the football games. Mrs. Lott sponsors the class. Class officers for the year were President - Amy Hoffman, Vice President - Erica Lindburg, Secretary - John Garrett, Treasurer - Ryan Sandell and St. Council Rep. - Trent Stevens.

Lane and Shane wondering why everyone is looking at them.

"Sara, Na Na Na Na Na Na!"



Eric hard at work!?!



"What's are you up to Jared?"

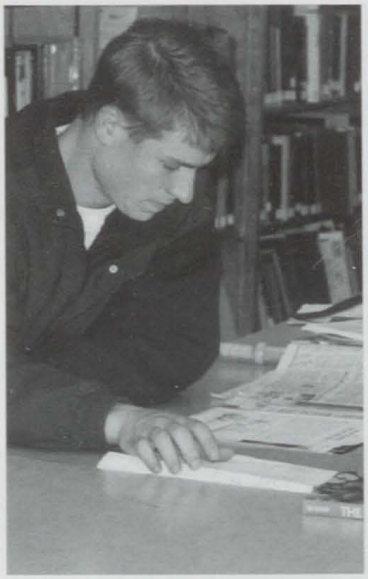
Class of '99

"Marita, listening to music and reading?"

Now Here's Love!

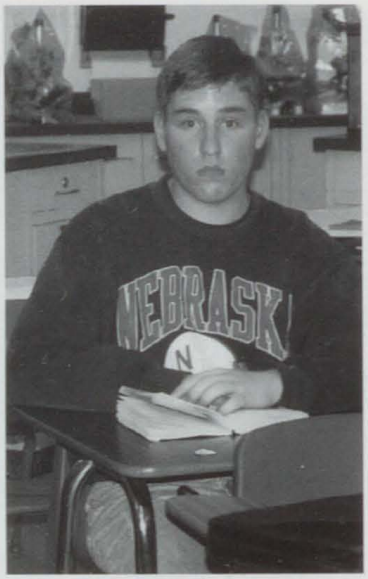
Juniors

Lee asking, "What's so funny?"



Brad wondering when this is due?

"Tim, we caught you!" MAKING COPIES.



Mark thinking he'd really rather be in bed!

Julia and November "Study in school, yeah right!"

"Hey Jeff and Chad, doesn't anyone work around here?"

Owen saying, "Art shall be MY Profession!"

"Gabe, What a smile!"

Chad and Brent thinking they would prefer the fork method next time!!

The Juniors year of high school is full of excitement and hard work. Prom is the big topic of conversation. They start their year off by selling magazines to get the money needed. Then the fun starts, making the plans for decorations, food, and entertainment. The big event takes place in April and adds a lot of memories to their high school years.

Packing up the dreams God planted in the fertile soil of you.
Can't believe the hopes he's granted means a chapter in your life is through.
But we'll keep you close as always, it won't even seem you've gone
'cause our hearts in big and small ways will keep the love that keeps us strong, so strong.
And friends are friends forever if the Lord's the Lord of them.
And a friend will not say "never" 'cause the welcome will not end.

Annual Class

Putting together the yearbook is just one requirement of this class. The Wildcat newsletter is also put together each month for distribution to the patrons of the Polk-Hordville district and a few other interested people.

A lot of work goes into getting the yearbook completed. Money must be raised through the selling of ads and annual sales. Learning the computer program for layouts is another new experience for most of the students. The entire book and newsletter is done on the computer.

Jon working again!?! Annual work is so tiresome.

Student Council keeps busy during the school year at Polk-Hordville High School. They start the year by rounding up their members and have election of officers. They helped with the homecoming dance this year and sponsored the Christmas party for the student body.

January found them working at the Jr. High Basketball Tournament and in February they had a Valentine's Day dance for the high school students.

Each year they try to do a community project in Polk and Hordville. They also attend district meetings throughout the year to visit with other students from surrounding schools.

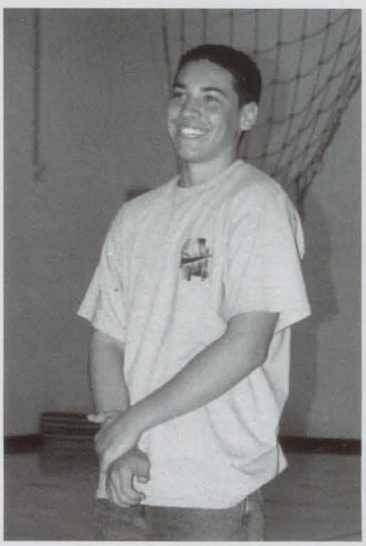
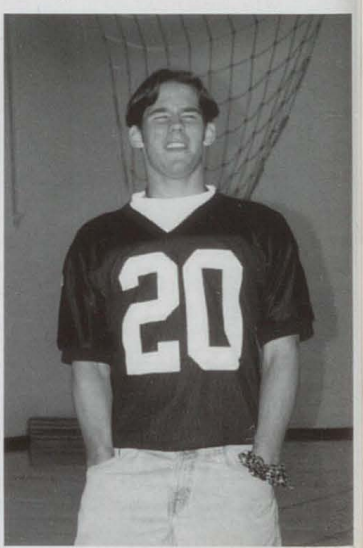
STUDENT COUNCIL

Amy, Trent, Clay and Ms. Vest look on as students vote for Student Council President during lunch.

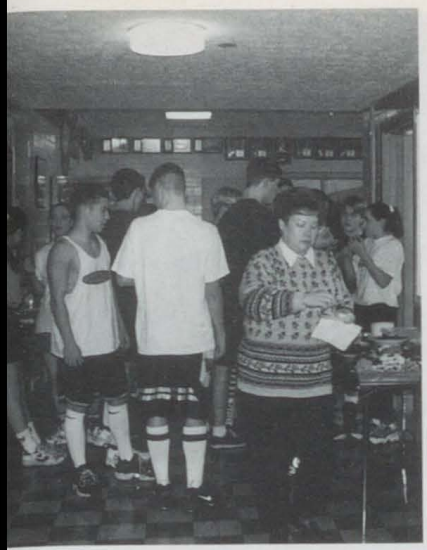
Jon, John and Mark getting ready for one of the movies shown during the Christmas party sponsored by the Student Council.

Election of Student Council President is almost like an official election. Each candidate campaigns for a day or two and then gives their campaign speech. Then the student body votes for who they want to be in charge. Right: Jeremy won the honors for President. Middle: Marita ended up being Secretary. Left: Lee was voted Vice President.

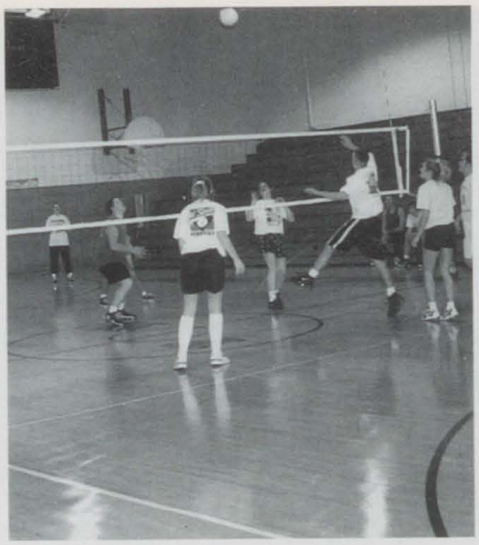




STUDENT COUNCIL



The food table is a very popular place during the holiday party. The student council members and the teachers bring snacks for everyone to munch on while they enjoy the activities of the day.



The volleyball tournament is also a popular event for the day. Teams are made up with whoever they can get to play. Looks like the seniors are taking on the juniors in this game.

Marita, a student council representative is starting this movie. She has an eager fan waiting for her to get it going, so it seems.

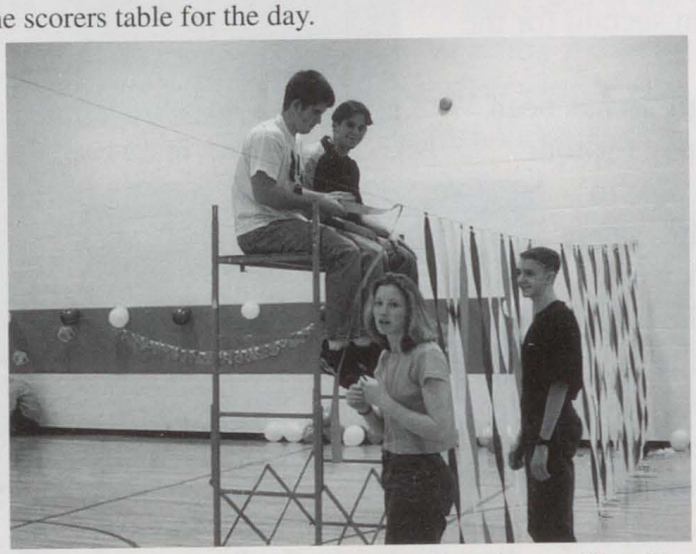
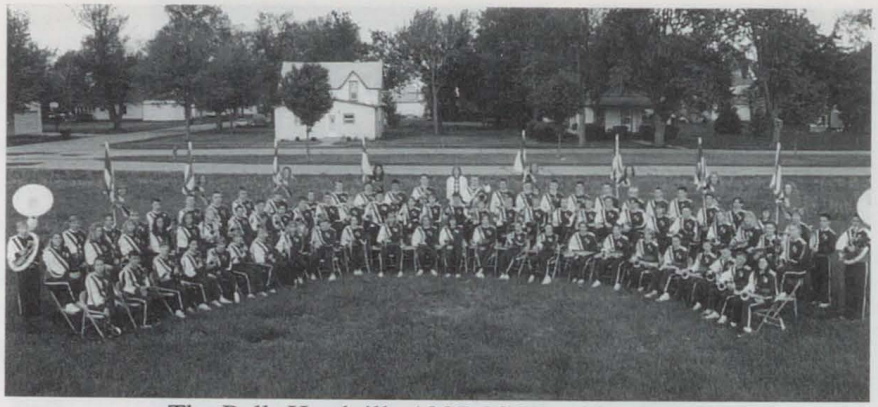
Trent Stevens and Josh Rystrom put up some wall decorations for the Valentine's Day dance.



St. Council sponsored a Valentine's Day dance. Here Ryan, Jeremy, and Clay recruited Julia Garey to help decorate.



The Polk-Hordville 1997-98 Marching Band

Jessica Stevens represented our school as candidate for the Harvest of Harmony Parade.

Flag Corp: Mindi Fowler, Thresea Bengtson, Jenna Sealey, Jill Bankson, Niki Glasser, Julie Hanquist, Amber Shenk, Caryn Hudson, Jessica Stevens.

Band

A highlight for the band this year was a trip to Chicago in March. Mr. Hess, the high school band members and five parent sponsors headed out for the Midwest Winter Festival held in Chicago. They received an Outstanding for their performance which placed them second for the contest.

This group has been raising money for four years to be able to take this trip. Many fund raisers were held with the help of the band parents organization. From hearing the stories after they returned, it could be said, they had a GREAT time.

Niki Glasser, leader of the band.

Pep Band playing at just one of the many basketball games. The sports teams really appreciate the band being at the games and playing during warm-ups and at halftime.

The band members must keep watch while marching to make sure their lines are straight. In almost every parade the band is judged for their performance.

It's amazing the facial expressions of the band members while they march and play for parades.

CHOIR

Solist at District contest were Erica Lindburg and Timeree Andreson. They both received excellents.

Honor Choir: November Person, Jennifer Holtorf, Jen Werner, Erica Lindburg, Tiffany Majerus, Jessica Stevens.

The choir members say Stop In The Name Of Love at one of their performances during the year.

Four concerts were performed by the Music Department this year. The first took place in November in preparation for the CRC Clinic. The holiday season always brings the singing out in everyone and our music department is no different. The fourth performance took place in the spring with the spring/dessert concert which is also a money raiser for the music department. The district contest ends the performances by the music groups and this year they returned home with top ratings.

Thanks always goes out to Mary Jane Samuels who finds time whenever she is needed to accompanist for the choir.

Highlights of the year for the music department would be marching over 100 kids for the first time; receiving 8th place at the Harvest of Harmony Parade; receiving a superior at districts for the 3rd straight year; and as Mr. Hess put it at the All-Activities banquet - the 13 hour bus ride to Chicago.

Some of the top honors that were given out this year include: National School Choral Award to Bianca Stojka, one of our foreign exchange students; Most Valuable Person in Choir: Thresea Bengtson; John Phillip Sousa Award to Caryn Hudson and Jessica Stevens; and Most Valuable Person in Band: Niki Glasser.

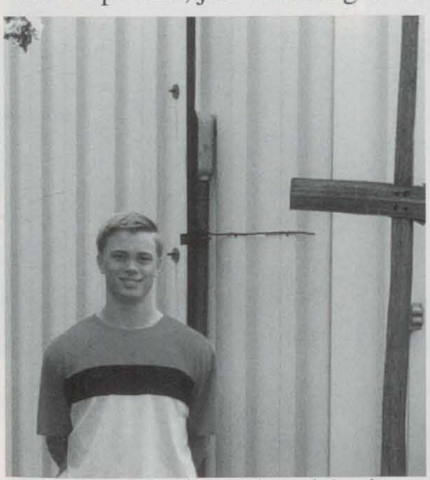
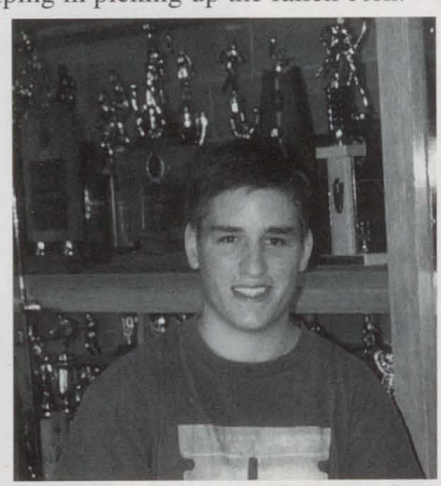
A big event in the fall is picking day for the corn plot. Everyone gets into the picture, just watching or helping in picking up the fallen corn.

Ag week is always a fun week for the Ag students. They have different contest throughout the week. The most popular one is the Ugly Truck Contest. Tyson Glasser won 1st place this year. "I wonder why?"



Andrew Carlson placed 1st in Horse & Dairy Judging.



Mark Gustafson won 1st in Poultry.

National Honor Society

On May 6th fifteen new members were inducted into this organization. Total membership moved to a record high of thirty-six members for the 1997-98 school year. Membership is based on qualities of each individual in the areas of Leadership, Scholarship, Character and Service.

Their pledge states it best:

I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of the National Honor Society to which I have been selected; I will be true to the principles for which it stands; I will be loyal to my school and will maintain and encourage high standards of Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character.

Cheerleaders stay very busy throughout the year. Between attending practices, making locker tags, planning pep rallies and cheering at games. Basically, it's the cheerleaders that initiate the activities of the Wildcat Club.

The squad consisted of seven young ladies this year. Bianca Stokja, one of our foreign exchange students wanted to be involved so she joined the squad in September.

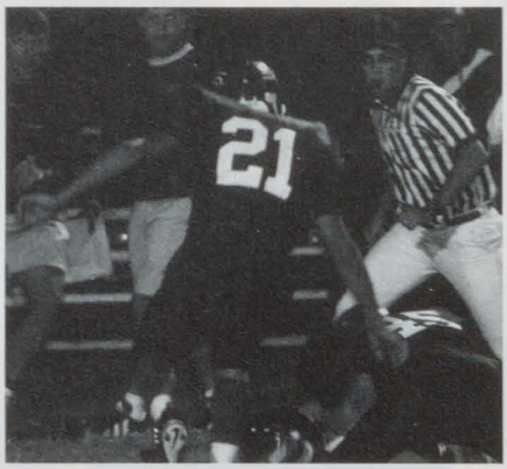
During the summer five of the six elected cheerleaders attended a week long camp at Fort Hays State University in Kansas, and came back with great ideas. The cheerleaders also plan Spirit Week, Homecoming and All-Activities Banquet. Pat Vest and Becky Carlstrom sponor the Cheerleaders and Wildcat Club.

"Run Andrew Run!"

"Keep him there John!"

"Say it Nick!"

"Stop talking Pickrel"

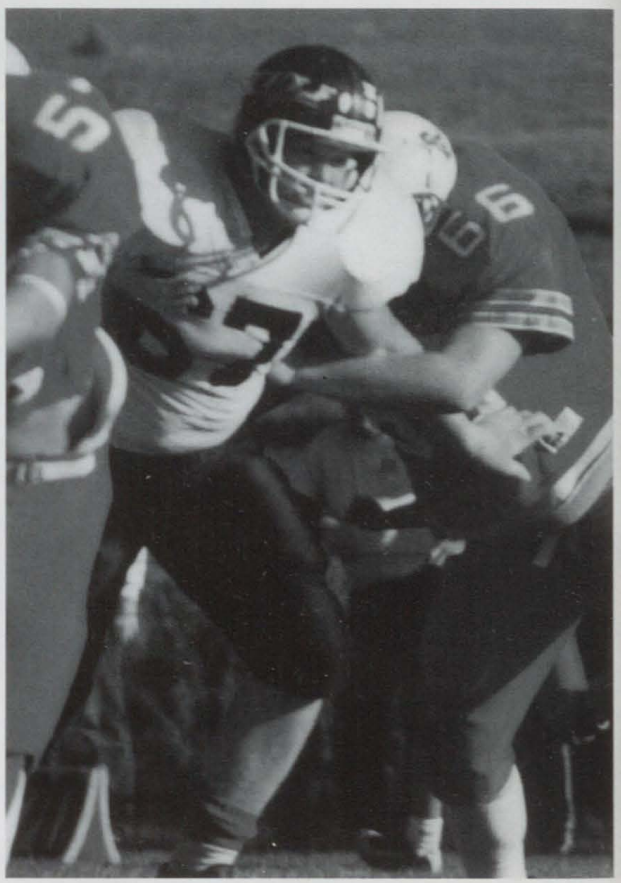


Chad Majerus saying to himself "gotta get there."

"Don't worry about him Gabe. Just CATCH THE BALL!"

FOOTBALL

"We need water!"



"LET ME THROUGH!"

Making state playoffs was a highlight of the year for the team. There have been other years when better record teams didn't make it but the team worked hard all season and deserved the chance for a playoff berth.

Someone broke the wall of Julie and Amber.

What a GREAT year this team had! They went undefeated in 2-set matches in every game except their last one. The last match of the season was in the championship game at the state tournament in Lincoln, where we fell to Hyannis. The girls came home with a silver medal around their necks and they should be very proud of their performance throughout the year. Congratulations!

Queen and King, Niki Glasser & Nate Hanquist dance the first dance of the evening together.

And to think someday these fine "ladies" will be in charge!!!

Look at those girls. "Aren't they cute"?

A major highlight of homecoming is always Spirit Week, the days leading up to the Friday night athletic games. It was no different this year. Monday was Odd Hat Day and my what ODD hats these students came up with. Tuesday was Baby Day, where we had one big pajama party at school. Formal Day was Wednesday, and boy did the students look handsome in their dress up clothing. Thursday was the greatest day from the girls standpoint. Opposite Sex Day was truly the hardest for the boys to deal with. It was an eye opener for the boys to be dressed that way; they found out what women go through everyday. Friday was Sport Day. We had sport uniforms, sportswear with team names on them and the general red, blue and white sport clothing.

A class Banner competition was held. Each class was given a white sheet to design and create a banner to be displayed in the gym. These banners were also carried by each class during the parade. The Sophomores won with their banner having the theme: Class of 2000 Want Some Feathers Plucked.

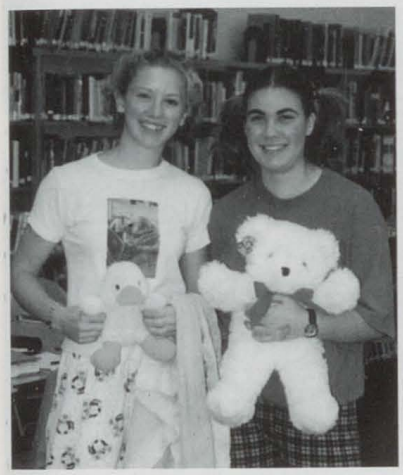
Homecoming



P.J. party

Erin telling everybody about spirit!

Each day class competition was held. These silly games took place at different times during each day. Points were awarded according to how each class finished in the event. Games included were: finding a jelly bean at the bottom of a pan of whipped cream, relays having boys or girls uniforms to put on, pies in the face, passing lifesavers from straw-to-straw that were held in the mouth, and making and undoing a human knot. All in all-they were harmless and lots of fun. The Seniors won with the most points accumulated throughout the week.

Other events of the week that were held was a parade and pep rally on Tuesday night. The senior parents took charge of the pep rally with GREAT skits to promote school spirit. Thank You Parents, You did good!

Thursday night the girls volleyball team matched up against Fairmont, winning in two sets 15-4, 15-4. Then on Friday, there was an all school pep rally held in the gym and the volleyball and football teams playing Hampton. The volleyball team won 15-7, 15-2 and the football team won 34-26. The royalty was crowned at half-time of the football game.

A dance was held following the football game in the elementary gym with Blazing Thunder providing the music. The theme was Break In The Storm.

That is what you get for messing with us!

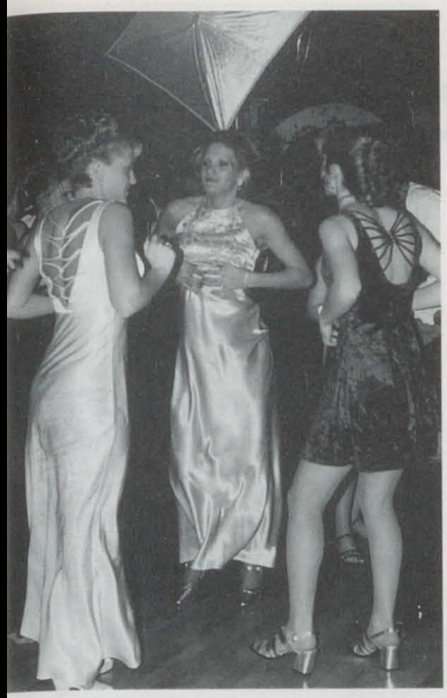
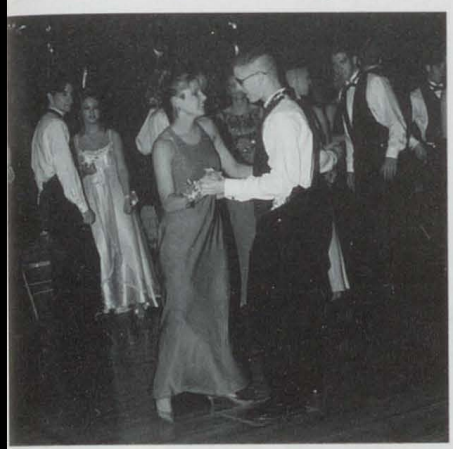
Time Of Your Life



Don't dance to hard girls.

"Come on ladies, you can go over there and ask those boys to dance, since they won't move."



"Chad, all attention is on you."

Thresea doing a little country swing.

'Time of Your Life' was the theme of the 1998 Prom. The evening started off with pictures being taken by the parents and of course Mrs. Gilson. The gym gets packed, flashes go off and eyes blink. It's surprising the kids can even see after the 30 or so minutes of flashing bulbs that go off.

Next comes the meal. Everyone finds their places and Jared Schulze, the toastmaster, welcomes everyone and get the ball rolling. After having a relaxful meal, Julia Garey read a poem to the seniors and Jeremy Garrett gave a word of thanks to the juniors, their parents, and the servers.

Then, finally it was time for the music to start and feet to move. The gym suddenly became a dance hall and music filled the building.

I believe it could me said, a good time was had by all.

"Looking good gentlemen, but go ask someone to dance."

Oscar and his date taking a break from all the dancing they had been doing.

"Finding a good song Tim?"

ALL ACTVITIES

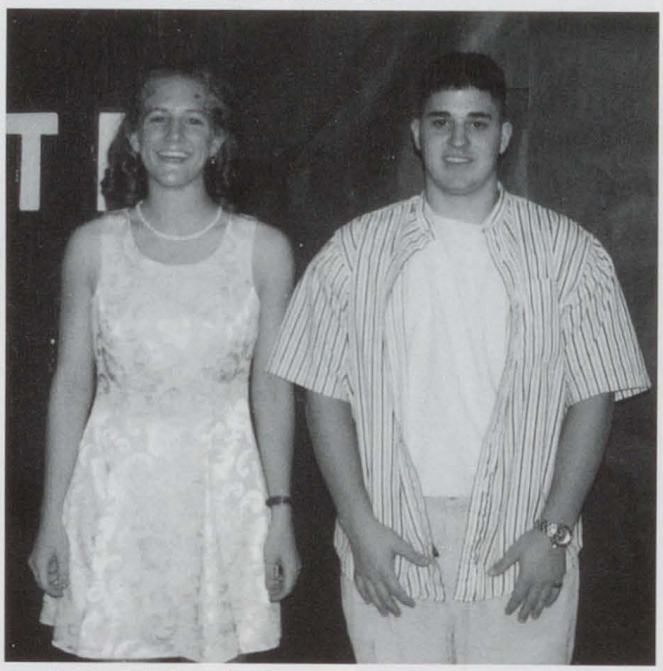
Beyond the Red, White, & Blue '98

The Freshmen girls getting broke in with the coach's/sponsor's responses.

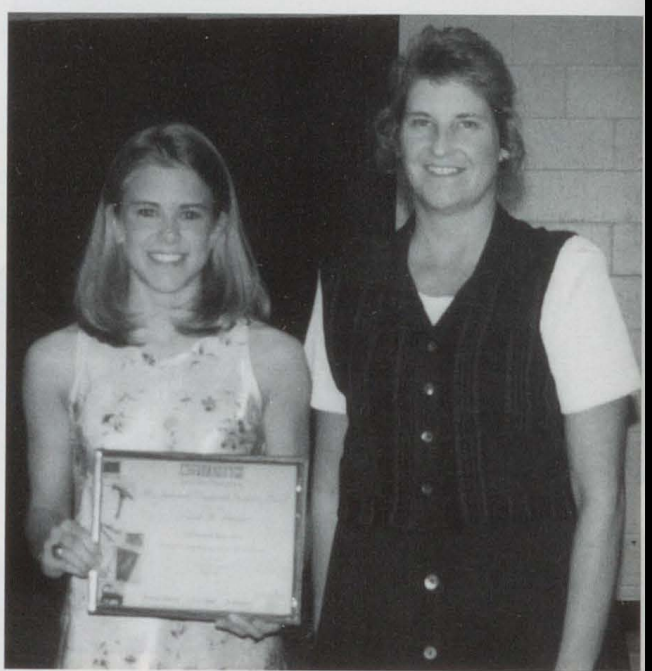
Nick and Shane have a snicker about something Mr. Leckron commented on for basketball.

"On the count of three." Decorating taking great preparations, here a table must be moved over to make room for another row.

"What's to eat?"

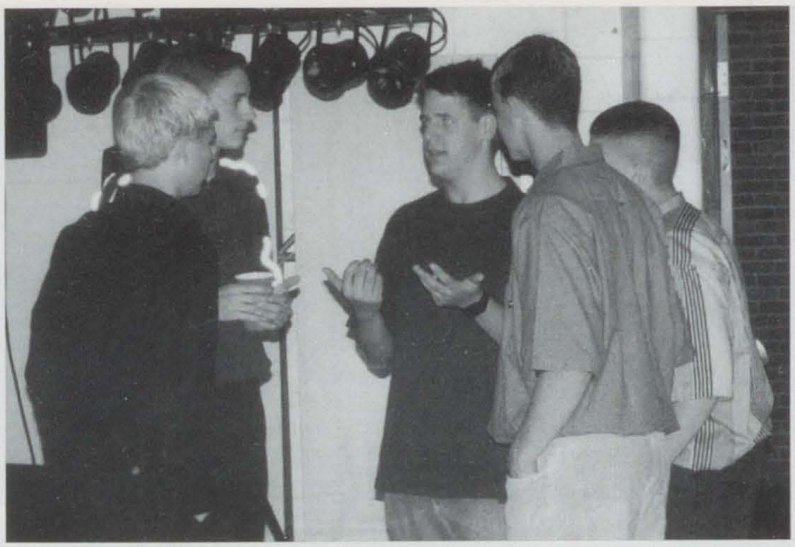


Caryn Hudson & Nick Larson were awarded the All- Around Student award.
These are voted on by the faculty.



Niki Glasser received the All-American Vocational student award from Coast-to-Coast. She was nominated by Mrs. Davis through the business dept.

It's a terrible job, but someone has to do it. Here John Garrett sweeps up the remains before the dance can start.



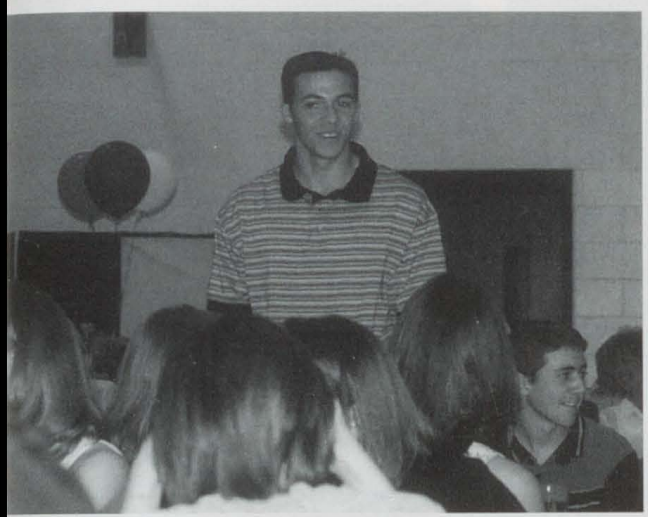
"O.K. fella's, the girls want to dance so let's go ask them at the same time and they won't think anything about it."

Beyond the Red, White, and Blue was the theme selected for the 1998 All-Activities Banquet held on Friday, May 8. The gym was decorated in red, white and blue for the final celebration of the year. There was much to celebrate. The hardware won this year by the different groups filled a table for all to view.

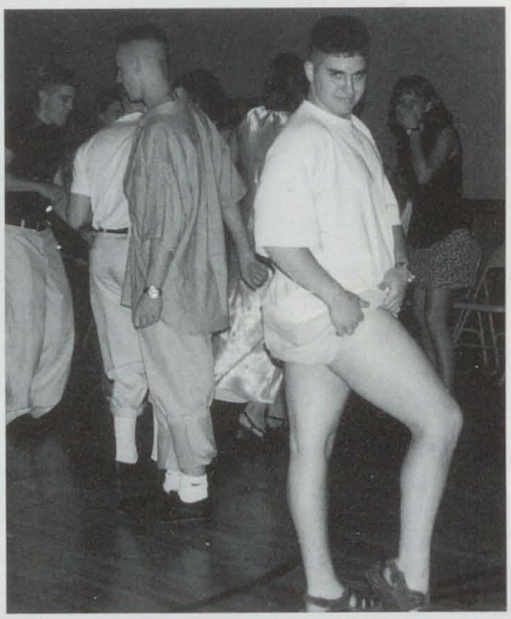
Thesponsors/coaches of each sport/activites held in school gave a re-cap of the year's events.

Some of the highlights of the evenings awards were: All-Around students were Caryn Hudson for the second year and Nick Larson. John Phillip Souse Award was given to Caryn Hudson and Jessica Stevens by Mr. Hess. Other music awards included the National School Choral Award given to Bianca Stojka and the MVP awards in choir and band went to Thresea Bengtson and Niki Glasser respectively.

The evening was capped off with a dance, a favorite event for all. The student council helped out by sponsoring the dance. Music blared, feet moved and bodies bounced for well over two hours. It was a great way to end the school year and celebrate the year's special moments and awards.



"Everybody's looking at me!" Jacob Ericksen was recognized for his being in the news lately for his business opportunities after high school



"I bet this gets me in the annul.."

The most popular song of any dance is always the YMCA.

"Yes Jeff, we're watching you."

Amber says, "Nice dancing gentlmen."

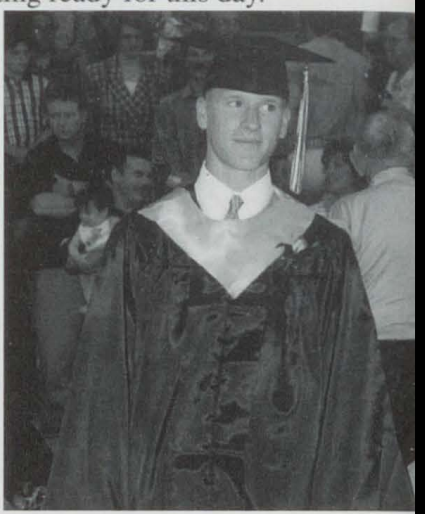
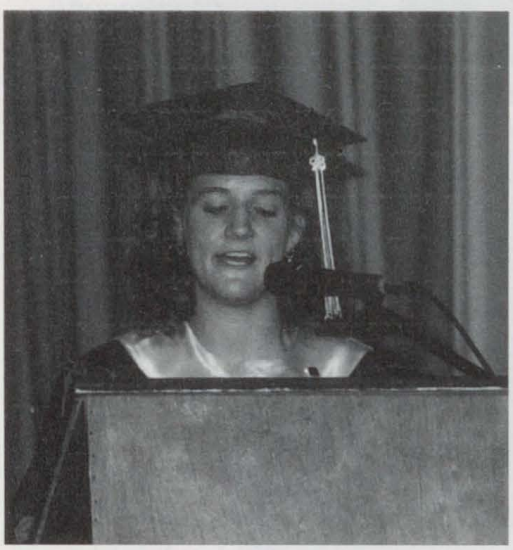
CLASS SONG

"Because You Loved Me"
Celine Dion



Jenny Erickson, left, and Chad Garrett, right, take a quick look at their parents as they come up the aisle.



Caryn Hudson was named Valedictorian. She gave a speech on the ABC's of her years here at Polk-Hordville.

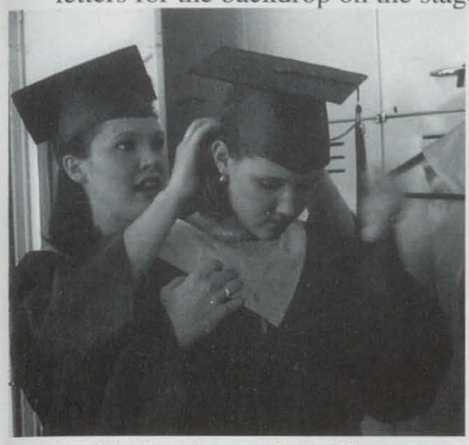
Niki Glasser was Salutatorian. The race was so close between Caryn and Niki, they didn't know which was which until it was announced at Graduation.

Jenny Erickson holds down her hat in the win as Mindi Fowler shakes hands with Christa Hudson who is trying to sort out her cards fo everyone.

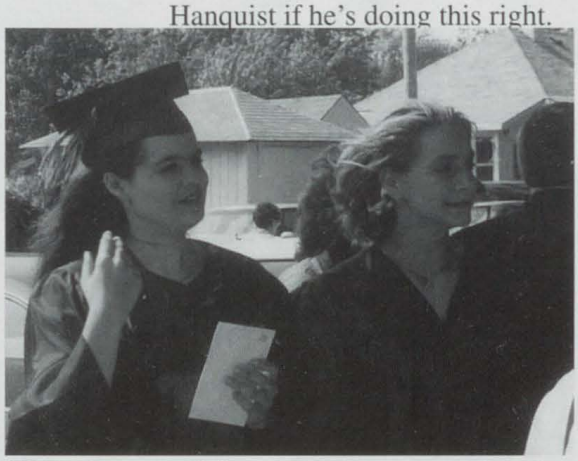
The seniors working together covering letters for the backdrop on the stage.

Nick Larson asks Chad Garrett and Nate Hanquist if he's doing this right.

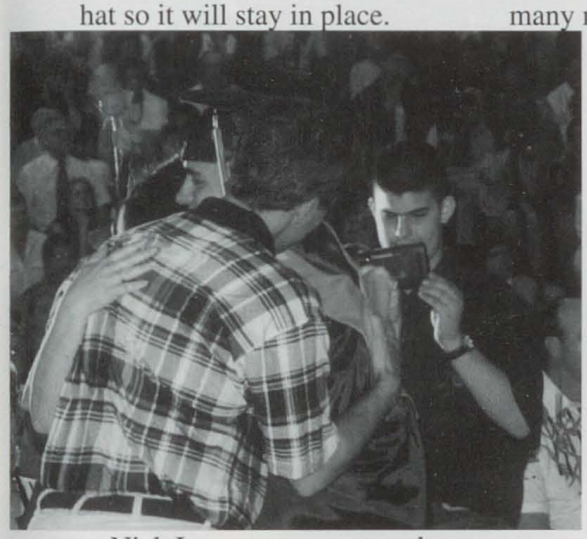
Lee Wolfe and Julia Garey were Junior Marshals



Amber Shenk pins on Julie Hanquist's hat so it will stay in place.



Jill Bankson and Thresea Bengtson wonders how many more people have to go through this line.



Nick Larson gets a group hug.

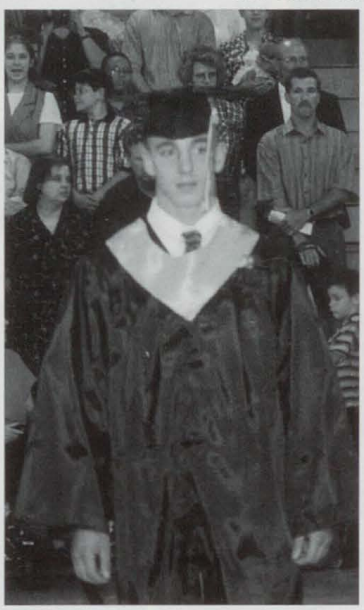
Jessica Stevens comes up the walk way.

Above: Emotions ran high as the senior girls and other choir members sang "Friends".

Right: Nate Hanquist is ready for this day to be over, but it's just starting.



Best Wishes go out to these seniors. They have their future ahead of them and they are ready to go forth and conquer.

They all have plans for their lives and hopefully they will accomplish the goals they have set for themselves.

For the last thirteen years they have had the guidance of teachers, administrators and their parents to help with decisions that had to be made. They are now on their own and must make those decisions by themselves or seek out the guidance they need from now on. Good Luck!

PARENT DEDICATIONS

Jessica,

You add sparkle to our lives.
We aren't ready to let you go,
but we will because we love you.

Mom & Dad

Niki,

We wish you the very best as you graduate from high school. You are so very special to us and we have always been so proud of you. Our lives are fuller and richer because of you!

We Love You,
Mom, Dad
Tali, Tyson & Logan

Julie,

Words cannot express how proud you have made us with your achievements in school, sports and everything else you have done. May your future plans be successful, and fill your life with happiness.

Our love always,
Dad, Mom, Jason & Jenny

Follow Your Dreams,
Dad, Mom,
and Mindi

Well now, Jenna, did you know
our family is with you wherever you go?

You are so much fun,
you give us a lift.
For being yourself
is one precious gift.

All of these things
make Jennifer Jo.
We are lucky to have you just so.

We are with you,
wherever you are;
tucked away in your heart,
but never too far.

So, as you go, on your way,
remember this love
every single day.

May it strengthen your courage from within and help you always more hearts to win.

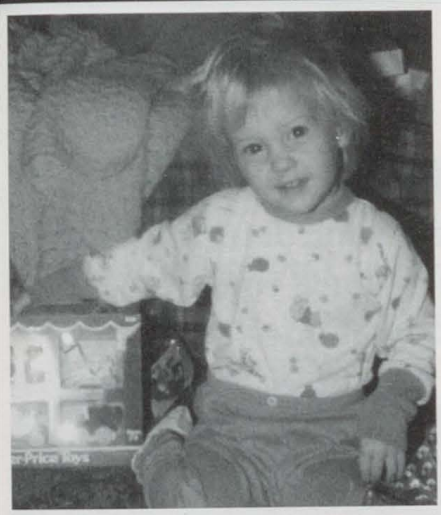
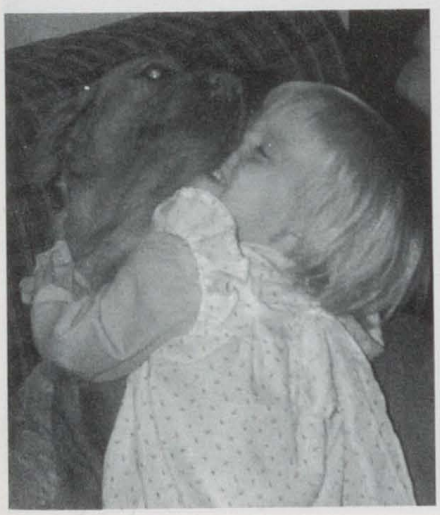
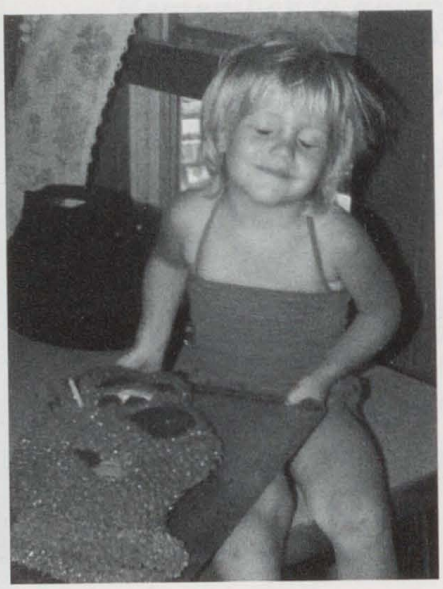
J E N N A







Mindi,

Once An Attitude Always An Attitude.....

Be that very special person you are!
You've been a joy to watch grow and change.
It hasn't always been easy but you kept trying. I'm so proud of you.

Reach, dream, love, care,
be a friend, trust and
I know you can reach the top.

Love
Mom
Dad
Misti and Jason

We are proud of all you have accomplished through the years.

May God Bless you and be your guide through the years to come.

Love Mom, Dad
Kari & Clint

JENNIFER

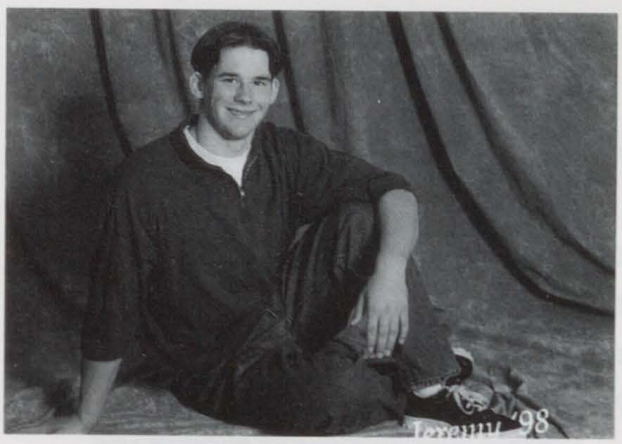
Jill,

So long ago the Lord blessed us with a beautiful little girl who has grown into a beautiful young woman.

You have had to work very hard for all your accomplishments and we are so very proud of you.

We wish you the best that life has to offer.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Tracie & Ashley



Jeremy,

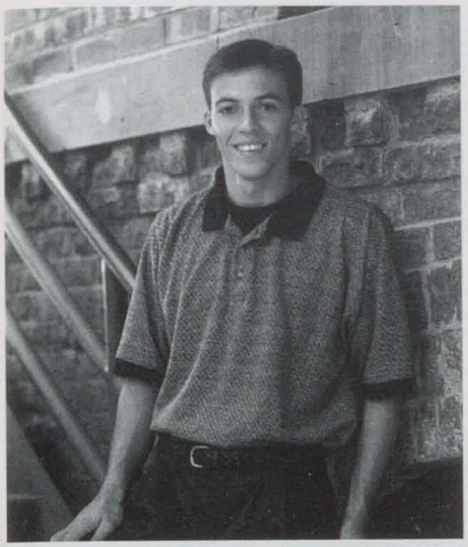
You have always made us very proud of all your accomplishments. Your determination to succeed has shown through since your very first step when you didn't stop at one - but walked the entire length of the house!

Just Remember - you can be whatever you want to be - But always be the Person You have Been - The Person You Are!

Love Always,
Mom and Dad
Lisa, Jason & Lindsay

Jacob,

You are a fine young man with a wonderful sense of humor and terrific work ethic. We are proud of your accomplishments and wish you God's blessings on your future endeavors.



Love,

Mom, Dad,
Levi, and Natalie

Caryn,

It seems like only yesterday that you were starting school. You've come along way since that first day of school. And done so much! Your school years have been so much fun. We will hate to see it all end. We are so proud of the fine young woman you have become.

Remember to always believe in yourself
and you will be able
to accomplish anything.
And know that you are
never alone.
You have your family,
your friends. and God.
May all your dreams come true!

Love,
Mom and Dad
